

Perquimans High School

Scholarship Bulletin Board

October 2017

Week of

October 23 -

October 27

That diploma you will hold in your hands is really just your learner's permit for the rest of the drive through life. Remember, you don't have to be smarter than the next person, all you have to do is be willing to work harder than the next person.

- Jimmy Iovine

OFFICE OF SCHOLARSHIPS

BRENDA LASSITER

GEAR UP OFFICE AT PCHS

BLASSITER@PQSCHOOLS.ORG

252.331.9806 - CELL

Scholarship Information

October 23, 2017

FAFSA Day/COA Open House Elizabeth City Campus Saturday, October 28th 9 am to 12 noon

Free Chick-fil-A biscuits to the first 75 attendees

Financial Aid professionals will be there to answer questions and help you fill out your FAFSA for colleges. Any student is welcome, no matter what college you plan to attend. Also, for all students COA is having an open house for you to learn about what COA programs are offered!

Also, SECU - Hertford Branch -- is available to assist you in the completion of FAFSA forms on any business day in the month of November.

Take advantage of this community support !

NC State Superintendent Mark Johnson sends a message via video to all parents of seniors. Please take time to listen.
<https://www.facebook.com/markrjohnsonnc/>

Representative from Appalachian State: A representative from Appalachian State will be on campus this Tuesday. There has been a change in the time of her arrival. An announcement will be made on Monday to verify her arrival time.

Golden Leaf Scholarship: - The Golden Leaf Scholarship will be awarded to 215 seniors in 78 select counties at a value of $3,000. Visit the website at https://www.cfnc.org/paying/schol/all_schols.jsp. The site should be up in the next few weeks.

NC Teaching Fellows Program: The NC Teaching Fellows Program is returning for STEM or special education teachers. It is anticipated 200 recipients will be selected. More information to come at a later date regarding the application process for those interested in a career in education.

ECU Honors College: – Remember the deadline for completed college application (including transcript and scores) is November 15th. Check your email daily so that you do not miss time-sensitive deadlines from colleges.

Student Athletes: – Thank you for representing Perquimans County High School in such an exemplary manner. Take a look at these scholarships. Apply directly on line.

<http://nchsaa.org/students-parents/nchsaa-endowed-fund-scholarships>

North Carolina Community Foundation Scholarships: North Carolina Community Foundation offers a number of scholarships to students in Perquimans County. Simply go on line and in the search area --- type Perquimans. <http://www.nccommunityfoundation.org/scholarships>

West Scholars: Catawba College's Academy for Teaching was established in 2007 to answer the ongoing need for excellent teachers and to further enhance the outstanding Teacher Education Department. If you are considering a career in education and want to attend Catawba College, come to the Gear Up Office to discuss this scholarship.

IMPORTANT !!!!!

Scholarship Applications Now Available:

- 1) Junior Women's Club of Perquimans County's Sallie Southall Cotton Scholarship $1,000 – a) be in top 25% of your class; b) plan to attend 4-year college or university in North Carolina; c) be a NC resident. DUE NOVEMBER 30, 2017
- 2) PAL Scholarship – Students to present their best work for a monetary scholarship of $500. Categories include Fine Arts or Crafts, Music, Dance or Drama, Theater Arts or Creative Writing. DUE JANUARY 10, 2018
- 3) Rotary's Jack Kanoy Scholarship – Students who plan to attend at 2-year or 4-year college or university. DUE MARCH 17, 2018
- 4) Parkville Ruritan Club $500 – a) be a PCHS senior; b) be in top 1/3 of class; and c) demonstrate financial need. DUE MARCH 1, 2018