That diploma you will hold in your hands is really just your learner's permit for the rest of the drive through life. Remember, you don't have to be smarter than the next person, all you have to do is be willing to work harder than the next person.

The NC Park Scholarship: The Park Scholarship Program is among the most prestigious undergraduate scholarship programs in the United States. The mission of the program is "to bring exceptional students to North Carolina State University based on outstanding accomplishments and potential in scholarship, leadership, service, and character."

You may self-nominate or be nominated by a school official. If you are interested in attending NCSU and feel you are qualified after reviewing the website (<https://park.ncsu.edu/apply/>) please come see me to discuss.

Carolina Covenant Scholar: UNC-CH offers an opportunity for a debt-free education for the high achieving, low-income student. The Carolina Covenant closes the gap in academic achievement between low-income students and their more affluent peers. If your dream is to attend UNC-CH but financially you are not sure you are able, let's discuss this opportunity.

Lenoir-Rhyne University: Lenoir-Rhyne is pleased to announce the fourth year of the LR Teaching Scholars Scholarship Program. If you have plans to attend Lenoir-Rhyne and are interested in becoming an educator, you may apply at:
<https://www.lr.edu/academics/opportunities-for-exceptional-students/teaching-scholars>

FAFSA Day: State Employees' Credit Union branches are providing assistance with FAFSA completion at no charge during regular office hours during the month of November. Parents and students may take their 2016 tax information into SECU and ask for assistance to complete the 2018-2019 financial aid forms necessary for their senior. In addition, parents or students may contact Demetrius Stokley at Perquimans High School for assistance. The Hertford Branch of SECU is not participating in the FAFSA Day on Saturday, October 28th, which is being advertised statewide but is willing to help any senior (and his/her family) during regular business hours in the month of November.

The American Musical and Dramatic Academy (AMDA): AMDA will hold its 2018 Audition Tour for admissions in Raleigh on November 11, 2017. Any student interested in earning a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with AMDA can obtain the application from the Gear Up Office.

NCSU College of Textiles: (Fashion and Textile Design, Fashion and Textile Management, Polymer and Color Chemistry, Textile Engineering and Textile Technology). Textiles Open House for NCSU is Saturday, October 14, 2017 from 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. The College of Textiles has one of the largest college-based scholarship programs at NC State University. If you are exploring these fields, make an appointment with me to discuss opportunities.
